

Leeds Loves Classics Ambassadors

UNIVERSITY OF LEEDS

Are you reliable, confident and passionate about Classics?

Are you keen to share your enthusiasm for Classics with students of the future?

The Arts Educational Engagement team is looking to recruit a team of reliable, approachable and enthusiastic students to work on our exciting Leeds Loves project which aims to engage and inform secondary school pupils about studying Classics at university.

As a Leeds Loves Classics Ambassador you will visit local secondary schools, give presentations and answer questions about your subject and your experience of studying at university. You will also have the opportunity to support University and academic staff on campus events for school pupils and teachers.

Leeds Loves Classics Ambassadors will be employed on a 1-year, fixed-term contract and will be paid at an hourly rate of £9.38. Work will take place on an ad hoc basis, according to demand from schools, and full training will be provided.

What are we looking for in a Leeds Loves Ambassador?	How will this be assessed?
Reliability and punctuality	Application / Interview
Ability to speak with confidence to a range of young people	Application / Interview
Excellent interpersonal and communication skills	Application / Interview
Ability to work independently and on own initiative	Application / Interview
Ability to work effectively in a team	Application / Interview
Knowledge and experience of a university environment	Application / Interview
Ability to adapt and be flexible in your approach to work	Application / Interview
Excellent spoken English	Interview

To apply, please complete and submit the application form, which can be found by following this link: <https://jobs.leeds.ac.uk/vacancy.aspx?ref=LEEDSLOVES18>

For informal enquiries, please contact Sarah Richardson: S.H.Richardson@leeds.ac.uk

The closing date for applications is 5pm on Wednesday 10th October. Please note that all interviews will take place on Tuesday 23rd & Wednesday 24th October 2018.