► Internship for business or languages students

The private company LKW WALTER, founded in 1924, is the leading transport organisation for full truck load transports throughout Europe and to/from Russia, Central Asia, the Middle East and North Africa. It is among the top 50 companies in Austria.

Your opportunities:

- Insight into the world of work with a big player on the European transport market
- Working in the operational field in an international team
- Ongoing contact with business partners across Europe
- Practical use of your foreign language abilities

Your profile:

- Currently studying business/economics or language
- Specialisation in management, foreign trade, marketing, organisation or a similar field
- Good knowledge of German
- Additional European languages are advantageous

Our offer:

- Accompanied by experienced coaches giving on the job training, from day one of your internship you will be fully integrated into the daily business operations. You will be given tasks and responsibility that correspond to your own personal development. We will be happy to help you find an apartment.
